LOCAL MENTION.

A STATE RELIGION AND A RETURN TO COLONIAL TIMES.

How Shall Washington's Religo-Educational Problem Be Solved?

Is religious teaching in the public schools the true solution of the great question of giving every child the education required for good citizenship?

A. G. Dani-sils, president of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists will speak on this question Sunday, March 26, at 3 p. m., in Pythian Temple, on Ninth street, near Massachusetts avenue.

At 7:30 p. m. A. T. Jones, author of "Two Republics," will speak on the theme entitled, "Great Lessons Drawn From the Struggles of Our Fathers in Colonial Times to Secure Religious Freedom." All welcome.

Would Enjoin District.

The Society of Perpetual Adoration has commenced suit against the District to enjoin the sale of certain property claimed to be its property. The complainant also asks the court to pass a decree exempting certain property owned by it in square 203 from general taxation, on the ground that the society is a religious order. Hamilton & Colbert are counsel for the complainants.
